

ArbitralWomen Breakfast Moot

“This House believes that the pursuit of diversity in arbitration has lost its momentum and is no longer a meaningful driver of change in the profession.”

ArbitralWomen invites moot participants to debate whether diversity initiatives in arbitration have stalled or become tokenistic amid global political shifts. The discussion will explore the profession’s genuine commitment to inclusion, the impact of populism, and the future of representation in arbitration.

Presenters

Anna Kelly
Associate Director,
HKA; Board member,
ArbitralWomen

Erin Eckhoff
Senior Associate,
Ashurst

Moderator

Swee Yen Koh
Senior Counsel, Partner,
WongPartnership LLP

Debaters

Jonathan Humphrey
Partner, HKA

Georgia Quick
Partner, Ashurst

Domenico
Cucinotta
Special Counsel,
Corrs Chambers
Westgarth

Ruimin Gao
Senior Associate,
King & Wood
Mallesons

DATE
Tuesday,
14 October 2025
08:00 – 09:30
(Moot begins at 08:30)

VENUE
Ashurst
Level 8,
39 Martin Place
Sydney
NSW 2000

REGISTER HERE

