

Sophie Thiel

Counsel
Munich

Biography

With her international background, Sophie Thiel advises global clients in all aspects of litigation and alternative dispute resolution, including complex domestic and international arbitrations, mediations, strategic pre-hearing fact-finding, and negotiations.

Sophie focuses her practice on assisting clients in corporate and commercial disputes, including post M&A issues and general commercial disputes. She concentrates on helping clients mainly in the life sciences and health care sector, as well as in the automotive, energy, telecommunication, construction, and financial services sectors. With the goal of getting clients back to business, she focuses on dispute avoidance and the economic aspects of a dispute. Sophie is skilled in putting together strong and solid basis for legal arguments, and helps clients predict and avoid surprises through efficient and effective fact finding.

Fluent in English, French, German and a basic understanding of Arabic and Spanish, Sophie is passionate about diversity and the development of arbitration. She is currently a member of DIS, ICC, HK 45, DIAC 40, ArbitralWomen, and a former regional coordinator of DIS 40.
