Sherlin is a partner in the international arbitration and litigation team where she specializes in international commercial arbitration.

With over a decade of experience, Sherlin has advised clients in Asia, the Americas, and Europe on all aspects of cross-border disputes from pre-dispute negotiations, during arbitration and litigation proceedings, and post arbitration and litigation proceedings including the issuance of an award or judgment. Sherlin has experience with a number of leading arbitral rules, in particular the HKIAC, ICC, SIAC and UNCITRAL Rules.

Prior to joining Withers, Sherlin worked with a leading international law firm in Hong Kong where she was a member of the international disputes practice group. Sherlin started her international arbitration career by working with a leading independent arbitrator where she acted as tribunal secretary for complex cross-border disputes. Thereafter, Sherlin worked for the Secretariat of the ICC International Court of Arbitration in both Hong Kong and New York, the latter of which she was a founding member of the case management office. Sherlin also worked in-house with a publicly listed international conglomerate where she handled the group's international litigation and arbitration disputes.

Sherlin is a U.S. qualified attorney (California and New York) and a Registered Foreign Lawyer in Hong Kong. She has spoken extensively in conferences worldwide and also gives lectures and trainings on international arbitration and cross-border disputes.
