Areas of Expertise:

Mary started her career in London. After qualifying as a barrister, she worked in the insurance and transport sector before returning to private practice and requalifying as a solicitor. She practiced in solicitors' firms in London and Hong Kong for 25 years and has conducted commercial litigation in the High Courts of England and Hong Kong including to the highest appeal courts. Mary has substantial and wide experience of international commercial disputes including construction and financial sector disputes. In 2013, Mary joined the Hong Kong Bar and rejoined the English Bar to focus full time on her arbitrator and mediator practice.

Mary has been involved in commercial arbitrations since her early years in London, conducting ad hoc as well as institution administered arbitrations including ICC, Uncitral, HKIAC, SIAC, SCMA and CIETAC Rules. She has been appointed arbitrator since 1996. She regularly sits in arbitrations in London, Hong Kong and Singapore on a wide area of commercial disputes including consolidated arbitrations. She also sat as sole arbitrator in an ICC arbitration in Manila involving an energy dispute.

Mary regularly judges at Vis East international arbitration moots including at the Finals in 2015 and also Vis Vienna.

Mary has mediated large international commercial disputes in London, Hong Kong, Singapore and Shanghai.

As an approved CI Arb RPL, Course Director, Lecturer, Assessor and Tutor, she regularly assists with CI Arb training in the APAC region.
