

Angela Casey

Associate

Angela Casey specializes in international arbitration and litigation. She regularly acts as counsel or secretary to arbitral tribunals in arbitration proceedings under various procedural rules and represents clients before state courts in a broad range of matters.

Angela Casey has been involved in numerous arbitration proceedings under various procedural rules, including the ICC Rules, the Swiss Rules, the WIPO Rules, the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules as well as the Vienna Rules.

Angela Casey is an active member of a number of arbitration associations, including the Swiss Arbitration Association (ASA), ASA below 40, the German Arbitration Institution (DIS), DIS40, and Arbitral Women.

Career

- 2022 Associate at Homburger
- 2017 Associate at an international law firm in Zurich and Geneva
- 2016 Bar admission
- 2015 Junior Associate at an international law firm in Zurich and Geneva
- 2015 Intern at the first instance Civil Court in Basel
- 2015 University of Basel (Dr. iur.)
- 2012 Doctoral Student / Research and Teaching Assistant at the University of Basel
- 2012 University of Basel and Zurich (MLaw)
- 2012 International Internship at Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP in London
- 2011 University of Basel (BLaw)

Languages

German, English, French

Bar Registration

Admitted to the Swiss bar

Teams

Arbitration
Litigation
Employment and Executive Compensation