ARBITRATOR PRACTICE

Sitpah Selvaratnam has had extensive experience as Presiding Arbitrator, Co-Arbitrator and Sole Arbitrator. She has been appointed in more than 40 disputes and has dealt with expedited as well as emergency processes.

Ms. Selvaratnam is regularly appointed by arbitral institutions, parties and co-arbitrators in commercial arbitrations including under the AIAC, SIAC and HKIAC Rules.

Her appointments in international arbitrations often involve:

- Charterparties, shipbuilding, ship repair, ship services agreement, construction of maritime facilities, and other maritime-related issues;
- International trade and commodities disputes including demurrage claims, loss from failure to deliver or take delivery of cargo, entailing market price evaluation, restitution and unjust enrichment considerations, and other determination of loss;

- Commercial contracts including disputes between shareholders, over the sale of shares in a company, transfer of business goodwill and assets, and sale and development of property.

She has handed down numerous awards, especially as Sole and Presiding Arbitrator.

Her prominent arbitration cases are :

1. Dispute arising out of a contract for re-fit and conversion of a vessel for heavy lift capabilities and DP3 as offshore service barge for pipe-laying, and the exercise of a lien over the vessel for non-payment of yard charges.
2. A dispute over the performance of a subcontract pertaining to the provision of decommissioning, relocation, modification and commissioning of a wellhead, and payments for engineering, mobilisation and demobilisation work.
3. Dispute in relation to business portfolio transfer of legal and beneficial ownership in a general insurance business, and the fair valuation of the price of liabilities considering the actuarial valuation parameters.
4. Dispute in respect of performance of a shareholders agreement with regard to the failure to allocate the agreed shares, and evaluation of the consideration given for the shares, in the form of the transfer of goodwill, trademark and stock in trade.
5. Dispute over a sale and purchase of commodities with allegations of duress and coercion in relation to an agreed price increment, and whether the price variation was valid and binding, considering principles of unjust enrichment and dishonest conspiracy.

Schedule A provides other details of some of her arbitration cases.
