OVERVIEW

Yihan is a dedicated legal professional with a specialization in international arbitration, cross-border dispute resolution, and non-litigation legal services. She has acted as counsel in a range of complex commercial and investment disputes under the auspices of prestigious international arbitration institutions such as the Singapore International Arbitration Center (SIAC), the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA), and other ad hoc arbitrations. Her casework spans disputes related to construction, contractual disagreements, and investment matters.

Prior to joining Zhong Lun Law Firm, Yihan gained invaluable experience in multinational corporations' business functions, providing her with a strong understanding of global industry practices and cross-border operational insights. Her business acumen, coupled with her legal expertise, allows her to offer well-rounded, strategic counsel in both contentious and non-contentious matters across multiple jurisdictions.

Yihan's international exposure and deep understanding of both legal and business dynamics equip her to deliver legal solutions tailored to the complexities of global commerce and investment.
